The Special Pay of Rs.100/- proposed by me for the whole time Medical Officer of the Alipuram Jail, does not include any house rent allowance. As the sub assistant surgeons employed in jails are not eligible for rent free quarters or any allowance in lieu thereof, I do not consider it reasonable to give the Medical Officer, the concession of rent free quarters or any allowance in lieu thereof. I proposed the special pay of Rs.100/- to him on account of the specially arduous nature of his duties as he will have to look after a very large number of prisoners in this special jail for political prisoners. Besides it is a wholetime job debarring him from private practice. The sum of Rs.100/- is meant to include allowance for loss of private practice al

2. The Government quarters referred to in my letter No.508/S.6/41, dated 27-2-41, will be required for Deputy Superintendent which post is likely to be sanctioned at an early date. If the Medical Officer is asked to occupy this building now and to vacate it later on, it will cause inconvenience to him. Besides he will not be able to get a suitable building near the jail at a short notice. I am therefore of the opinion that he should be asked now alone to rent a bungalow for his residence in the vicinity of the jail

C.No. 8171C - From the I.G. of Prisons, No.ROC.566/B1/40 dated 22-2-41.

Subject:- Alipuram jail - Medical Officer - Conditions of service.

A whole-time medical officer of the status of civil asst. surgeon has been appointed to the Alipuram jail, Bellary. Orders have now to be passed on the conditions of his appointment. The I.G. was asked to report in consultation with the Surgeon-General the conditions of appointment and the allowances attached to the post. The I.G. has suggested that the civil asst. surgeon who is appointed as medical officer of the Alipuram jail may continue to be a member of Madras Medical Service and be allowed, in addition to his grade pay, a special pay of Rs 100/- per mensem. The Surgeon-General has agreed to the I.G's proposals

2. Proposal No.(1). The proposal that the medical officer of the Alipuram jail should be a member of the Madras Medical Service has already been made by the E and P.H. department--vide that dept's note on pp. ~~12-13 ante~~ 24-25 Ref. No 674 Home 8.2.41. This dept. may agree.

3 Proposal No.(2) - Grant of special pay of Rs 100 a month.

The new revised scale of pay of Civil Asst. surgeons is Rs 165-20/2-345. A special pay of Rs 100 ha been recommended on the grounds of (a) that the officer will have to look after a large number of prisoners (b) that he will have to remain in the vicinity of the jail and (c) that the nature of the duties will be specially arduous. It is not stated whether the suggested special pay includes the compensatory allowance of Rs 30/ usually allowed to civil asst. surgeons for loss of private practice and represents any portion of the house rent allowance. Civil asst.surgeons are not entitled to any house-rent allowance. Only those stationed for duty in Madras are granted ~~as house rent~~ Madras House allowance. It has been noted previously that the medical officer should live near the jail--please see in this connection J-S's note on p. 15 of G.O. No. 674 Home d/8-2-41. (K)

4. Whole time medical officers are not usually appointed for any jail. But during the days of the Mappilla Rebellion when the Alipuram jail was opened, a whole time medical officer was appointed, as the Superintendent of the jail was a non-medical officer as at present. A civil asst. surgeon drawing Rs 390/- was appointed as a medical officer of the Alipuram jail in 1922; and in the jail department he was given a consolidated salary of Rs 500/-, thus allowing the difference of Rs 110 per month. Subsequently when military asst. surgeons were appointed, they were granted class III special pay of Rs 100 a month for arduous duties in addition to their grade pay. It is submitted that in the present case a special pay of Rs 100 may be granted as compensation for loss of private practice, and in consideration of the arduous nature of the duties in the jail and his obligation to live near the jail.

(d) Quarters have been built for two sub-asst. surgeons, one in G block and the other in one of the vacant buildings.

(e) The quarters intended for the Superintendent were constructed in G block. As they were found unsuitable, the Government have ~~re~~ permitted the Superintendent to rent a private bungalow at a monthly rental not exceeding Rs 75. The quarters should be approved by the I.G. The I.G. has stated that the quarters allotted for the Superintendent may be required either for the civil asst. surgeon as ~~as~~ medical officer or for the deputy superintendent of the jail, the creation of which post the I.G. has ~~now~~ separately recommended. He has also stated that the civil asst. surgeon may occupy the quarters till the deputy superintendent is appointed. It may take some time for the deputy superintendent to be appointed.

The I.G. reports that the special pay of Rs. 100/- proposedly given for the medical officer of the Alipuram jail, does not include any house rent allowance but is meant to include allowance for the loss of private practice; He does not consider it reasonable to give the medical officer the concession of rent free quarters or any allowance in lieu thereof. For the reasons given in para 2 of P.C.F., he is of opinion that the medical officer should be asked to rent a bungalow for his residence in the vicinity of the jail. The medical officer took charge on the forenoon of 16.3.41. It is felt that there seems to be no prospect of a Dy Supt being sanctioned for the Alipore jail in the near future. The population of the jail on 30.3.41 was 577. The jail has a whole time medl officer and a whole time Supt. The jail will accommodate about 1989 prisoners when all blocks are repaired. The jails at Barrackpore (1183) Bankshall (1809) Rajshahi (1407) and Tamluk (1780) which have no separate whole-time medl officers have not been allowed any Dy Supt. In order whether the D.I may be asked to allot the Supt's quarters to the medl officer and recover rent and if so, a separate file will be started on this subject.

Home may support the I.G's recommendation to grant a special pay of Rs 100/- inclusive of compensation for loss of private practice. If so, D.I may be asked to issue orders.

A separate file may be started on the question of the C.A.S. accommod

26/3 S.

I think that an all-in allowance of Rs. 100/- is reasonable, especially in view of the 1927 figures in para. 4, p. 2 above. It theoretically includes Rs. 30 for loss of private practice, and we have to remember that, tho' H.R. as an allowance doesn't arise, the C.A.S. has to find a house near his work at a place where there is little choice and where he will probably have to pay Rs. 40 or 50.

A whole time medical officer of the status of Civil Asst. Surgeon has been appointed to the Alipuram Jail at Bellary. He took charge on 16-3-1941. The proposal now is to sanction him a consolidated allowance of Rs 100 p.m.; it is intended to cover:

(b) compensatory allowance for loss of private practice; and

(c) increased house rent which the officer may have ~~likely~~ to pay by his having to live in the vicinity of the jail.

cf. Home Dept's note on p.7 ante

2. In regard to (c) above, attention is invited to the I.G.'s letter on page 7 C.F. He does not consider it reasonable to give the medical officer the the concession of rent free quarters or any allowance in lieu thereof, as sub-Asst. Surgeons employed in jails are not entitled to rent-free quarters. If such a concession is extended to the Civil Asst. Surgeon, a similar claim from the two sub Asst. Surgeons employed in the Alipuram Jail cannot, in fairness and equity, be refused. There seems to be no justification for according a differential treatment to the medical officer alone.

× Item (a) in para. 1 above

3. The plea of the arduous× nature of duties has apparently been urged in view of the 1922 precedent -- please see pages 11 & 15 of G.O. No. 482, Law (Genl), dated 22-2-1922. It is respectfully submitted that the present conditions are entirely different from those in 1922. (In 1922) The prisoners were Moplah prisoners numbering over 4,000, with 10 per cent of them sick with enteritis, colitis, chicken-pox, malaria, influenza and hook-worm. The population of Alipuram jail on 20-3-1941 was only 577 consisting of political prisoners. Home cannot seriously contend that the duties of the medical officer would be as arduous or even half as arduous as those in 1922. The case for the grant of a special pay under the present circumstances appears to be rather very weak. The question may perhaps be deferred until the jail shows an appreciable increase in population.

It would seem that the needs of the case will be adequately met for the present by the grant of a compensatory allowance of Rs 30 p.m. to the Civil Asst. Surgeon for loss of private practice. — see item 44 on page 68 of the Madras Manual of Special Pay and Allowances, Vol.II.

I do not consider that items (a) & (c) in their note are justified. Regarding (a) it is submitted that jail work being out of the line of S.A.S; and being much more arduous than their usual work necessitates special pay. There would be a case for special pay for the S.A.S except for the fact that jail duty is one of "necessary evils" of their service which they have to do in turn, at some stage in their service. I think they have a spell of 3 years at it and I think every S.A.S. heaves a sigh of relief when it is over.

I do not propose that Warder should get an allowance equal to rent-free quarters, but the difference between 10% of his pay and the rent he actually has to pay if it is higher than 10% of pay. The justification for this is that he must live close to the jail, and the field of choice for residence is actually extremely limited. If he had field quarters he would pay Rs. 45/- house rent (he is much higher in pay than we thought he was likely to be). It seems from p. 10 C.F. that he is likely to have to pay something nearer his 10% than he is doing at present, but even so the H.R. element disappears.
